

The Swing Rhythms Trio

A combo of saxophone, guitar and drums presenting a programme of well-known jazz and swing classics.

The Swing Rhythms Trio will have you swaying to their music as the Pop-Up Prom moves back in time to the Forties music of Cissie Redgewick (Gimme that Swing), the Andrews Sisters and Charlie Parker. You will also recognise some favourite pop songs given a vintage jazzy twist.

The Trio is Tom Belin on saxophone, Ian Mayes on guitar and Richard Carter on drums. They are all music graduates from Chichester University with much experience gained on the London and South Coast jazz scenes, including the famous Soho Pizza Express Jazz Club, and the Cheltenham Jazz Festival.
